Simon Snyder was in Dover in 1758 (Gilbert Livingston Land Papers) and Crum Elbow (Big Nine Partner's Patent) in 1760-62. (Dutchess County Tax Lists). He moved to Ft. Edward, New York in 1763. He is also listed in Ft. Miller for a time. He later moved across the Hudson to Saratoga, probably about 1772. He was taxed in Saratoga March 1779, two lots from his brother-in-law William Boyce. "Came from Saratoga from farm he had 4 yrs. before war and left June 1778 with Loyal Rangers. He lost 6 cleared acres, 1 mare, 2 cows, 8 hogs, tools, farming utensils, furniture. Claimant was at Mashishe in 1783, a native of America. Lived at Saratoga. Joined the British in 1777. Served till the end of the War." (NY Toronto Military: Loyal Rangers Biography).

His loyalty to the Crown was further attested to by Sir John Johnson: "He was imprisoned by the Rebels for about three months as he was suspected to be a friend to the Government by them." In a claim of 11 Dec 1787 he is described: "Is a Loyalist and bore arms in support of the British Government." He and his son John Jost Snyder settled in 1784 at Ernestown, Len. & Add.

Co., Ontario. Simon was granted 200 acres between 17 June and 9 Sept. 1789 in Ernestown. A certificate was given at Kingston on 16 March 1792 for 200 acres, east half of lot 31 and half lot 32, ?fifth Concession in Ernestown. He moved north to Camden East, lot 7, concession 4 – 200 acres and lot 12, concession 4 – 200 acres, 17 May 1802. On 5 Nov 1803 he received lot 21, Concession 1 in Ernestown from his son John Jost who was granted the property in 1784. Simon died in Ernestown, before 26 Jan 1808 at age 74. On this date there were a number of property transfers among his sons after his death, which suggests he died sometime in late 1807.

BALTUS SNYDER AND ELIZABETH VAN STEENBERGEN

Balthazar (Baltus) Snyder, born 15 Jul 1735 and chr. 21 Sep 1735 in Rombout Patent, Dutchess County. (New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, vol. 98, p. 110.) Married about 1756 Elisabetha Van Steenbergen, b. 3 Jun 1736 in Kingston, Ulster County, daughter of Jacobus Van Steenbergen and Grietjen De Duyster, early Dutch settlers on the Hudson. Baltus was listed in the Big Nine Partners Patent June 1761-June 1762. They had two surviving children:

1. JOHN SNYDER, prob. chr. 19 Jul 1757. Sp: Hannes J(ost) Schneider and wife Magdalena Flageler. (Hopewell Dutch Ref. Church). He was apparently the single heir of Baltus Snyder listed in his grandfather's will in 1885. He was in Stephentown, Rensselaer County, New York in the 1790 census at 1-0-2 and was next to Joseph and Marcus Diamond, sons of Edward Diamond and Christina Snyder. Marcus Diamond is listed as father-in-law of his cousin, John Snyder.
2. MAGDALENA SNYDER, chr. 18 May 1762. Sp. Jacob Schneider and Elizabeth Schneider, child's uncle and aunt (New Hackensack DRC, Dutchess County, New York). Since Helena is the diminutive of Magdalena she might well be the Helena Schneyder of Poughkeepsie who married James McKenny of Fishkill 29 Aug 1778 mentioned above. The names Helena and Eleanor are variant forms of Magdalena.

Baltus apparently died sometime after Magdalena was born, so his surviving son was given a legacy in his father's will in 1785. Baltus' widow married secondly, aft. 25 Mar 1772, Barnardus Swartwout, b. 12 Sep 1731 of Poughkeepsie. His first wife was Elizabeth's older sister Marretjen, b. 29 Mar 1730, with whom he raised a large family. See "Swartwout Chronicles" for his history.

ZACHARIAS SNYDER

Zacharias Snyder was christened 26 May 1739 in Poughkeepsie, Dutchess Co., New York. Sp: Zacharias Vleglaer and (Gertrude) Gertjen Vleglaer, the child's uncle and aunt. He was christened the same day as Elizabeth McGregory, the daughter of Edward McGregory and Gertrude Flagler. Zacharias was in Capt. Peter Harris' Company with his brothers Marcus and Philip and his brother-in-law William Boyce in 1760. Later that year his name appeared on the list of deceased soldiers. (Muster Rolls of New York Provincial Troops, pg. 254, 530.) He died at age 22 and was, consequently, not listed in his father's will in 1785.

DEDICATION

This history is dedicated to the thousands upon thousands of descendants of Johann Jost Snyder and Anna Magdalena Elizabetha Flagler and collateral relatives. Some are known through early records, but many still exist in obscurity. What is presently known of their first four generations is included in this history. Perhaps future Snyder and Flagler researchers will use this present effort as a springboard for additional research. The search has certainly been fascinating. With the availability of the internet and increasing numbers of Snyder-Flagler descendants researching their own family history the tempo of research seems to be steadily increasing.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many researchers through the years have added to our present knowledge of the “Snyder-Flagler family tree.” From the perspective of the Intermountain West Snyder branches of the family, research began back in the 1880’s as many Latter-day Saints began tracing their roots. We are deeply indebted to James Henry Moyle, U.S. Solicitor General, for his many years of untiring efforts to trace the ancestry of his mother Elizabeth Wood, daughter of Daniel Wood and Mary Snyder, daughter of John Jost Snyder and Elizabeth Emigh. John Jost was the son of Simon Snyder and Mary Lane. Simon was the son of Johann Jost Snyder and Magdalena Flagler. We are likewise indebted for the extensive efforts of Franklin D. and Jane (Snyder) Richards. Jane was a granddaughter of Jacob Snyder and Nancy Ismay. In 1896 they dispatched a local Utah genealogist, B. F. Cummings, Jr., to research Ontario, Canada records. In 1935-1936 a noted professional genealogist, George Olin Zabriskie, spent two years in Canadian and New York archives and interviewed dozens of Snyder descendants. His research fills volumes and has become a primary source. Current research is being continued by Salt Lake City professional genealogist Richard W. Price, also a Snyder descendant through Jacob Snyder and Nancy Ismay.

Recent research extended the Snyder and Flagler ancestry back with the revelation that the Snyders and Flaglers were part of the great Palatine migration to New York in 1710. Henry Z. Jones, Jr.’s Palatine research in 1992 determined the Snyders came from Huttengesass, Germany, a small village about 20 miles northwest of Frankfurt. This gave direction to early Snyder research in Germany. Frank J. Doherty has provided much information about the Snyders while they lived in Dutchess County, New York after arriving in America. A massive effort to catalogue all Snyder/Flagler descendants was undertaken by a Canadian descendant of the Snyder/Flagler family, Roger Bredin of Whitby, Ontario, Canada. The scope of his research and records collections is truly amazing. He has virtually become the standard work on Snyder/Flagler research.

More recently Snyder/Flagler research picked up momentum with the formation of a “Snyder Research Group” on the Internet. It is composed of about 40-50 descendants of Johann Jost Snyder and Magdalena Flagler. Special thanks to Sharilyn Whitaker who has reviewed earlier versions of the manuscript and offered helpful comments. The year 2010 marked the TriCentennial of their arrival on American shores. In their honor the author is striving to produce a history of their ancestors and descendants that will be worthy of the great progeny that survives them.

PHILIP SNYDER AND MARY ?HUNT

Philip Snyder was born 15 May 1741, chr. 26 May 1741 in Poughkeepsie. Sp, "(Philip) Solomon and Anna Margaret Vlegelaar." (Poughkeepsie DRC). Philip married abt. 1760, Mary ?Hunt, b. abt. 1743 in Rombout, ?died bef. 1801. prob. sister of Dorothy Hunt who md. Ambrose Vincent. He was listed in Hillsdale, Columbia Co., in the 1790 Federal Census at 3-2-3. He was three away from Ambrose Vincent. Philip Snyder's will dated 6 Jul 1793 and proved 30 Sep 1793 lists his wife as "Mary" and his children as: "William, (b. abt. 1761); Ambrose, (b. abt. 1763); Rachel, (b. abt. 1765); Philip, (b. abt. 1767); John, (b. abt. 1770); Stephen, (b. abt. 1773); Mary, (b. abt. 1775); Dolly, (b. abt. 1777), both under 18 years." Ages and sequence of Philip and Mary Snyder's children are based on the 1790 Hillsdale, Columbia, New York census and Philip Snyder's 1793 will. Philip is listed as an heir of his father's estate in 1785. He is mentioned with his brother-in-law William Boyce in a petition of Samuel Perry in his claim as a Loyalist.

Philip Snyder's wife Mary appears to have been either a Hunt or a Vincent based on the names of their children. There was no Mary "Hunt" or Mary "Vincent" listed in Michael Vincent's will, however Mary was prob. dead by the date of his will in 1801. McKensie lists Mary Hunt, but Frank Doherty rejects her. The Snyders, Vincents and Hunts seem to have been connected in Dutchess County, New York. Ambrose Vincent married Dorothy Hunt of Dutchess County, New York. His brother Michael married Ruth Hunt, Dorothy's sister. In 1788 Michael Vincent bought an adjacent farm to Johann Jost and Magdalena (Flagler) Snyder's farm as was noted earlier in this history. Irene Hunt, another, sister of Ruth and Dorothy Hunt, married John Mandigo, father of Peter Mandigo who married Rachel Snyder, Philip and Mary's daughter. Wilkinson Vincent, son of Ambrose Vincent and Dorothy Hunt, married Mary Snyder, Rachel Snyder's younger sister.

2. AMBROSE SNYDER, b. abt. 1763, prob. in Dutchess County, New York. He was probably named for his uncle Ambrose Vincent, Mary ?Hunt's brother-in-law. Ambrose Vincent moved from Dutchess Co. to Hillsdale, Columbia Co., in the early 1770's and thus, was likely the catalyst for Philip Snyder and Mary ?Hunt's also moving to Hillsdale, to be located by her ?sister Dorothy and Ambrose Vincent.

3. RACHEL SNYDER, b. abt. 1765, probably in Rombout, Dutchess Co., New York, died 16 Oct 1813 in Sunset, New York, md. 1783, her ?first cousin, Peter Mandigo, b. abt. 1763 in Dutchess Co., New York, died before 3 Jan 1814 in Herkimer Co., New York, son of John Baptist Mandigo and Irene Hunt of Dutchess Co., New York. “Referring to our talk Saturday, I find that I do not have much information about the family on my fathers side. My great grandfather, John Snyder of Albany, New York, married Cornelia DeForest. She was a Walloon, probably of Belgium. I have always understood he was of Dutch descent. I do not have the date of this marriage, but to them was born my grandfather, Richard Snyder of Albany, New York on Mar 23 1816. He moved to Geneva, New York when a young man and there married Anne Nares, October 4, 1840. To this couple were born seven children, including my father, George W, Snyder. I fear this information is not helpfull, but my uncle, William J. Snyder, age 77, is living and it may be that he would be able to anwer any question regarding his ancestors. Signed: G. F. Snyder, Law Office, Colorado Building, Washington D. C.”

Memorandum of Apr 1937 by G. F. Snyder, Lawyer: “My Grandfather, Richard Snyder of Geneva, (Ontario Co.), New York, who came from Albany County, had an Uncle named Col. David Snyder, who lived in Elizabeth, New Jersey. He had a brother Louis Snyder, but we have no trace of him. Col. David Snyder had two sons, William and Louis, about whom I know nothing. He also had two daughters, one of whom I am trying to trace, and the other of whom married a man named Kassam or Kassan of New York, who probably has left descandants there of that name. My grandfather also had a brother named Philip who lived in Lapeer, Michigan. It is very likely that this man left descendants.”

7. MARY SNYDER, b. abt. 1775, prob. in Dutchess County, New York. She was prob. named for her mother Mary ?Hunt. died before 1809, md. 26 May 1795 in Fishkill, Dutchess Co., New York, Wilkinson Vincent, b. about 1758 in Dutchess Co., died bef. 1809, son of Ambrose Vincent and Dorothy Hunt of Dutchess Co., New York. Their children were left at a young age without parents. Children:

1. Ambrose Vincent, prob. named for his grandfather, Ambrose L. Vincent, b. 10 Jan 1797 in Fishkill, Dutchess, Co. New York, died aft. 1880 at Hart, Oceana Co., Michigan, md. Elizabeth Unknown, b. abt. 1807. (See 1880 Hart, Oceana, Michigan census). They lived near Spencertown, Columbia Co., New York. The composition of this family has been very elusive. It is also claimed this Ambrose Vincent md. as his second, Dorothy Diamond, widow of his first cousin Ambrose Vincent reviewed above. Both husbands being named Ambrose Vincent further complicates the problem. In June 2005 the Vincent family organization has published the following commentary: (The Vincent Tin Horn, vol 13, no. 1).

“Ambrose Vincent had two grandsons named Ambrose, one by Levi Vincent and the second by Wilkinson Vincent. In past genealogies, descendants William and Orrin Vincent of Rensselaer and Columbia Counties were attributed to be grandsons of Levi Vincent. But there seemed to be a better fit for William and Orrin Vincent to have been grandsons of Wilkinson Vincent. The Dr. George Christopher Vincent letter of 1908 gives some evidence that William and Orrin Vincent were grandsons of Wilkinson Vincent and not Levi Vincent. We believe that William and Orrin Vincent had two additional siblings, Silvester Anson Vincent, lived in Redding, Connecticut; Lorena Vincent, b. Mar 1821, died after 1910 in Rensselaer Co., New York, md. (1) Aaron D. Wheeler. (2) as his third, George Lyme Williams, b. 1804 in Nassau, New York, died 7 Feb 1901 in Nassau. In the 1875 Sand Lake, Rensselaer Co., New York census ninety year old Dorothy (Diamond) Vincent, (b. abt. 1785) was living with Lorena Williams.” William and Orrin Vincent poss. came with their mother Dorothy (Diamond) Vincent when she md. Ambrose Vincent, son of Wilkinson Vincent, as his second. So, the question remains, was Dorothy (Diamond) Vincent, Lorena Williams mother or step-mother?

2. Philip Vincent, prob. named for his grandfather Philip Snyder, b. 23 May 1800, died 16 Sep 1887 in Lexington, Sanilac, Michigan. According to his nephew, Dr. George Christopher Vincent below, he never married. In the 1880 Marion, Michigan census he was living in “the Poor House.” He died 16 Sep 1887.

3. Nancy Bernice Vincent, prob. named for her aunt Nancy Vincent, b. 1801 in New York, md. abt. 1823 in Austerlitz, Columbia Co., New York, Sylvanus Hand, b. 1792, chr. 8 Nov 1795 in Rocky Hill Twp., Hartford, Connecticut, died May 1867, son of Jonathan Hand. Children born in Spencertown, Columbia Co., New York: John Henry, b. 21 Feb 1826, died Mar 1905 in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, md. (1) 5 Jan 1847 in Rossie, St. Lawrence Co., New York, Sally Lashbrook, b. 29 Aug 1828 in New York, died 1934 in Port Huron, St. Clair Co., Michigan, dau. of Nathaniel S. Lashbrook and Laura Peck.
